Reports

Autumn in the Village – Chris Hoffmann

Chris attended a Traffic Control meeting where it was decided to hire two Sheriffs for coverage during the Festival. Concrete barricades will be positioned at Big Tree and Commercial Street. The Rotary may help at side streets during the Parade. Main Street will reopen after the Parade. Dan Coon said that he will post a signup sheet at the Livonia Fire Department to help with traffic.

Autumn in the Village – Cara Stewart

Cara informed the Village Board that there have been two Festival meetings so far. July 6th, 2023 is the next meeting. The possibility of businesses volunteering to put floats in the Parade was discussed. A night time band will perform from 6 to 9 pm. Cara needs Board Member T-Shirt sizes for new shirts.

High School Art Awards – Marion Stewart Bowen Excellence in Art

1st Place Winner – Riley Fleck $500

2nd Place Winner – Tommy Keysa $300

3rd Place Winner - Ella Keller $200

Thank you notes from the students are attached.

Solar Eclipse – April 8th, 2024

Annette Meade mentioned the possibility of contacting Supervisor Eric Gott to see if the Town of Livonia would be doing anything related to the Solar Eclipse.

Deer in the Village

Trustees Dan Coon and Annette Meade discussed the deer problem. Currently, there is not much damage. The DEC had previously told Dan Coon to document deer incidents.

83 Big Tree Road

Trustee Annette Meade pointed out that some work has been done on the roof and porch. The new owner is Scott Donaldson.

Joann Backus

Julie Holtje from the Building & Zoning Office recently spoke to Joann Backus. Chris Hoffmann said that the Village may need to contact Attorney Peter Skivington for advice on the easement issue.

M/2/C (D. Coon, A. Meade) to adjourn the Village Board Meeting at 7:30 pm.
Passed 3 to 0.

Respectfully Submitted,
